- a cash advance from your account transacted at another financial institution.

Electronic Transactions

A direct ATM charge may be applied by the ATM owner at the time of the transaction. Direct charges no longer apply at many Australian bank ATMs.

Bank@Post™

Important things to know

Monthly Account Fee

Where this fee applies to an account it will be debited on the last calendar day of each month, including the month on which the account is opened. The fee will not be charged at the time of account closure.

You must ensure that you maintain sufficient funds in your account at the end of each month to cover the fee.

Bank@Post™ and its device marks are trademarks (registered or otherwise) of the Australian Postal Corporation.

©BPAY Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518

Monthly Account Fee exemptions

Where a Monthly Account Fee applies to an account, you may be eligible for a fee exemption for that month if either of the following criteria is satisfied:

1. $2,000 or more is deposited to your account in total during the month from an external source i.e. a source that is external to your individual MyState Bank customer number. Transfers between your own accounts do not qualify as an external source.
2. If you are 18 years of age or younger. The Monthly Account Fee is waived and won't be charged to your account.

Excess Transaction Fees

Some accounts do not have a Monthly Account Fee but provide a limited number of free withdrawal transactions each month.

If you have one of these accounts, once the free monthly allowance for your account has been used, each withdrawal will incur a fee (our Electronic or Staff Assisted Excess Transaction Fee) that will be debited to your account after the excess transaction occurs.

Please note that any 'unused' free withdrawals for a calendar month are not added to the next month's free withdrawal allowance.

Section E

Handy Tips on Minimising Personal Account Fees

The following tips to minimise fees is general information and may not reflect your specific banking needs.

Check you have the right account(s)

If you are 23 years of age or under, consider an Everyday Banking Account - you automatically qualify for a Monthly Account Fee exemption and will enjoy unlimited free electronic and staff assisted transactions.

Similarly if you plan to deposit $2,000 or more per month into your account, consider an Everyday Account and enjoy Monthly Account Fee exemption and unlimited free electronic and staff assisted transactions.

If you are over the age of 23 or you don't plan to deposit $2,000 or more per month into your account consider a Glide Account which has no Monthly Account Keeping Fee. Just be aware that if you ask us to perform a transaction that you could have performed yourself, a Staff Assisted fee applies.

If you are 55 years or older, and / or in receipt of an eligible government pension, consider an Access Assist Account.

Avoid ATMs which charge a fee

MyState Bank branch ATMs and most bank ATMs, including the four major banks, do not charge for ATM transactions.

Some retailers also offer cash out with EFTPOS purchases no fee applies to these.

Keep track of your account balances (to avoid overdrawing your account or transactions rejecting).

Checking your account balances can be done at any time though our mobile or internet banking, or by phone banking on 138 001.
